

1971

Faces in the news

Anonymous

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/dl_tr

Part of the Accounting Commons, and the Taxation Commons

Recommended Citation

Tempo, Vol. 17, no. 1 (1971, spring/summer), p. 39-42

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Deloitte Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Touche Ross Publications by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

Faces in the news

International Management Consulting meeting held in New York was attended by representatives from Canada, United Kingdom and the United States. Current developments in management consulting and plans for expanding international management consulting were discussed, and Kenneth R. Oswell was appointed director of International Management Consulting.

Participating in the meeting were:

ALEXANDER R. AIRD, Canada;

MICHAEL J. BLACKBURN, United Kingdom;

PAUL E. HAMMAN and JOHN A. WILSON, International Executive Office;

KENNETH R. OSWELL, Canada and

JAMES E. SEITZ, United States

When executive international partner John A. Wilson retired at the end of May fetes in his honor were held in cities throughout the world. Pictured here at the formal dinner held in New York are Mr. and Mrs. Wilson with their hosts, managing partner Robert Beyer and Mrs. Beyer.

The NAA Chapter in Frankfurt, Germany, held its charter meeting this spring. Here R. Lee Brummet, a professor from the Graduate School of Business at the University of North Carolina and NAA national vice president, presents the Frankfurt chapter charter to Elmer F. Fisher, newly elected president of the chapter. Mr. Fisher, partner in charge of the Touche Ross office in Frankfurt, was active in the formation of the chapter and had served as chairman of its organization committee.

Recognition for work in business and professional activities was given Mary J. McCann, Touche Ross partner in Kansas City (right) by the Greater Kansas City chapter of Theta Sigma Phi. Presenting the award is Priscilla Owings, 1971 chairman of honorees.

Managing Computer Systems Projects, a new book published by McGraw-Hill as part of the Touche Ross Management Series, was written by John C. Shaw and William Atkins. The authors, pictured above, are both partners in the Detroit office.

Honorary professorship was presented to Jerry B. Jackson, Touche Ross partner in Kansas City (right), by Dean Clifford Clark from the University of Kansas School of Business. Mr. Jackson taught an auditing course during the spring semester.

Business Opportunity Workshop in Atlanta was led by Lyonel M. Joffre, partner in the Touche Ross Atlanta office, C&S National Bank management associate Pat Arnold and A.V.P. Archie Davis, head of Term Loan at C&S. The seminar, co-sponsored by C&S in conjunction with the Atlanta Business League and the Atlanta Achievers, was a part of the bank's Georgia Plan, an urban action program for disadvantaged citizens.

Toys donated to the Salvation Army by Touche Ross staff in Los Angeles were accepted by Mrs. Major Lincoln Upton, divisional home league secretary. Linda Peck and Judy Robbins made the presentation for Touche Ross.

The first Panamanian to pass the United States CPA exam is Irma de la Guardia, who passed the Illinois exam on her first attempt. Miss de la Guardia is with Touche Ross in Chicago and received her masters' degree from the University of Wisconsin.

The Missouri Society of CPA's Golden Award went to Gail S. Grosman, a tax department senior in the St. Louis office of Touche Ross. Mrs. Grosman, shown receiving the award from C. Robert Meyer, society president, also received the Elijah Watt Sells Award for placing in the top 41 out of 27,000 contestants in the national certification testing. She has been with the firm since 1967.